

Need some equipment? High quality reflexology equipment at an exclusively discounted price!

When we thought about what benefits might be most useful to you as reflexologists, it was proposed that you might like a discount with a quality supplier of therapy equipment - which we can now offer to all Full, Fellow and Student members!

Beautelle, a well established British company who produce high quality therapy equipment, are willing to offer an exclusive 10% discount on all of their products to any Full, Fellow or Student member that wishes to purchase equipment from their online store. And here's the best bit - when there is a special offer on any of their products, your AoR discount will mean that you get your additional 10% off the sale price!

So whether you want a new treatment chair, saddle stool, couch cover or blanket that looks professional and comes with an extra discount, your discount means that you can access high quality equipment at affordable prices.

The discount is delivered through use of a special code in conjunction with your membership number - so if you do need to order any equipment, please don't forget to have these to hand when you order. Why not take a look at Beautelle's range today by clicking the Beautelle logo above?
