'Net loads of information with our new Members' Area - your one-stop online resource!

Looking to do a quick read-up on some conditions? Looking to renew your membership or book onto a Seminar instantly? Wondering where to find an electronic or audio version of Reflexions?

It's all in the Members' Area! This fantastic online resource centre contains a wealth of information about reflexology, as well as providing online booking/renewal facilities, research references, CPD information, World Reflexology Week information, business and marketing information, book and DVD reviews, interviews and media, information on regulation, information on Area Groups, AoR news and much more! It even has a Discussion Forum, so you can provide and receive peer to peer support, information and discussion of topics that are important to you in the world of reflexology.

It's available for free – all you need to do is register on the first time you use it (if you haven't used it since June 2010 you will also need to re-register), and you too could access the wealth of information it offers.
