

Read Reflexions - our popular professional journal gives you more!

Full of real life case histories, advice on medical conditions, advice for dealing with particular groups of clients, business tips and so much more, our quarterly professional journal is a treasure trove of information that some members literally read on their doorstep when it arrives!

It's free of charge for all of our members, and available in a variety of formats so that all members can access it – why not try the electronic or audio versions available on the Members' Area?